

Important PPP Update

As you may be aware, the Small Business Administration (SBA) and the Department of Treasury have released an interim Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) Loan Forgiveness Application.

We continue to monitor developments to the program and the application as Congress recently recommended several changes still awaiting final approval. In anticipation of the program's final approval, we want to provide you with your SBA loan number for reference.

SBA Loan Number for your business.

n/a

Please use this number when completing your Loan Forgiveness Application. We have also published a checklist to help guide you through the information and documentation required to complete the application. We will inform you by email when FAIRWINDS' Loan Forgiveness online portal becomes available for you to submit your application.

